

LOAN ESTIMATE AND CLOSING DISCLOSURE TIMELINES

TIMING IS EVERYTHING

TRID regulations have introduced new timelines to the real estate industry. You and your clients should be aware of these important timeframes and plan your transactions accordingly.

Loan Estimate (LE) Sample Timeline

The lender must deliver or mail the LE no later than the third business day* after the lender receives the loan application. The LE is considered received three business days after it is mailed.

*Business Day

For the purposes of the Loan Estimate "business day" is defined as a day on which the lenders offices are open to the public for carrying on substantially all of its business functions.

Application

An "application" consists of the submission by borrower of: 1) name; 2) income; 3) social security number; 4) property address; 5) estimate of the value of the property; and 6) mortgage loan amount sought.

CLOSING DISCLOSURE (CD) Sample Timelines

The consumer must receive the Closing Disclosure 3 business days[†] before consummation^{††}.

[†] Business Day

For purposes of the Closing Disclosure “business day” is defined as every day except Sundays and Federal legal holidays.

^{††} Consummation

This is the time a consumer becomes contractually obligated on a credit transaction.

So when will your transaction be finished?

That will depend upon the lender policies and local practice. It is possible that consummation may not occur the same day as funding or recording.
